small private offices, a server room and cloakroom, whilst the first floor is entirely open plan with the exception of a large kitchen/staff room at the rear. Both floors have cassette air conditioning whilst the ground floor is in good decorative order but the first floor does require some redecoration and re-modeling.

Oaktree Place provides an attractive, out of town setting where similar purpose built offices and business units are set around a paved forecourt and parking areas with landscaping. The development is approximately 3½ miles south of Exeter City Centre, giving very easy access to the Ring Road and both Regional and Trunk roads and the M5 motorway.
